Limited-term Instructor Position, Department of Computer Science

The Department of Computer Sciences invites applications for a two-year limited term position in the Instructor Stream. Instructors normally teach at the first and second year level of our program, but those with specific expertise may teach at more senior levels if required. The position begins August 1, 2015. Applicants must have a Ph.D. in Computer Science. This is a limited-term position with no expectation of ongoing employment. The successful candidate will teach up to 6 half-course equivalents (HCE) per calendar year, delivering high-quality instruction to undergraduate students, and may be involved in course and pedagogy development.

The Department is one of Canada's leaders as evidenced by our commitment to excellence in research and teaching. It has an expansive graduate program and extensive state-of-the-art computing facilities. Calgary is a multicultural city that is the fastest growing city in Canada. Calgary enjoys a moderate climate located beside the natural beauty of the Rocky Mountains. Further information about the Department is available at http://www.cpsc.ucalgary.ca/.

A complete application should include curriculum vitae with e-mail address, a concise statement of teaching philosophy, and a teaching dossier describing past teaching experience. Candidates should arrange to have three letters of reference sent under separate cover as soon as possible to:
